Snap Poll # 9 – Secure and safe housing

Summary:

This snap poll sought Western Australian’s sentiment around secure and safe housing. We had 117 responses, telling us that the most people feel relatively secure about their housing situation, however 56 per cent highlighted that they have felt vulnerable in their own home.

In order to feel safe and more secure in their home, 40 per cent of people indicated that they would feel safer if there was less crime in the area, followed by having more security features in their home (38 per cent), and having income security to pay for their home (32 per cent).
